EARLY STALK PLOW UNDER NEEDED

WEEVIL TOLL IN MILAM IS CITED IN REPORT

Results of a survey just released by the United States Department of Agriculture, if heeded by Milam county cotton farmers, will have a far reaching effect on their operations and would always mean the difference between profits and losses in cotton farming.

Plowing under cotton stalks in September has cut down boll weevil infestation to an amazing degree.

The Department of Abriculture has cited a Texas example. Cotton farmers in Williamson county instituted a large scale stalk clean up campaign in 1947. Farmers in adjoining Milam county did not. Next summer Williamson county had 9 per cent of cotton squares punctured on July 12 and 12 per cent on July 23 and 17 per cent on July 30. In Milam county 45 per cent of the squares were punctured on July 15 and 59 per cent on July 23 while on July 30 a total of 63 per cent of the squares were punctured.

It is shown that Williamson county farmers required less than half the insecticides to control their cotton pests as did Milam county, nearly a quarter million pounds less.

Early clean up of cotton stalks in the fall is the only practical way to reduce the losses. It is a known fact that boll weevil feed on nothing save cotton and removal of the stalk prevents them from breeding. Without fall feed, pests go into hibernation hungry and partly starved and winter weather kills them.

The facts disclosed to-day by this survey could be put to such use as to revolutionize cotton production in so far as weevil menace is concerned. It appears that a campaign should be instituted with local Agricultural Agencies leading out. Farmers would no doubt be glad to protect their own interests. Such information should be in the hands of every farmer.

It is significant to note that in South Texas cotton is turned under by a fixed date each year. This to combat pink boll worm and the results have been amazing.

It is pointed out early stalk destruction is one of the most successful control measures known. Experts say if every farmer who can get his cotton harvested in time will cut and plow under cotton stalks before frost, boll weevil control will be less expensive and difficult the succeeding year.

Twin Steers Sold By J. D. Turney, Will Go To Anheuser-Busch In St. Louis, Mo.

Twin Durham steers "Red and Tom" were in Cameron Wednesday for a brief stop on a long journey to St. Louis, Mo.

The trip started Wednesday from the J. D. Turney farm near Hanover where the steers were raised. They were bought by Tom Peebles of Lexington and are being shipped by Santa Fe to Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company in St. Louis.

The steers are blood red and weigh 3100 pounds about 1550 each. They are so perfectly matched they are identical and many here who visited the stock pens Wednesday said they had never seen anything to compare with these steers.

As the story was told, Congressman Lyndon Johnson, a friend of the St. Louis brewer, undertook to get a pair of matched steers for the St. Louisan. The Lexington stockman and buyer, Peebles, was given the job and finally located twin steers on the Turney farm.

Mr. Turney obtained these steers when they were young calves and raised them to their present size. They are 4 years old.

Mr. Turney likes the colorful pioneer days and remembers having seen oxen pull the turning plows in the old days as a boy on his father's farm. His contribution to the Cameron Centennial was a yoke of oxen drawing a pioneer wagon of the prairie schooner type.

JOHN O. WOLF IS BURIED IN CAMERON

LIEUT. VAN KENNON

REBURIAL IN KENTUCKY FOR LT. VAN KENNON

Reburial services for Lieut. Van Kennon will be held in the Zachary Taylor National Cemetery in Louisville, Kentucky at 11 a. m. on September 30, it has been announced here.

Lieut. Kennon was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kennon of Belmena and was killed in action on December 26, 1944 on Luzon in the Phillippine Islands while on combat duty with an American Air Force then supporting ground movements of the army in the recapture of the islands.

The reburial will be for seven heroes of the air who were occupants of the B-29 ship when it crashed into the mountains. The plane piloted by Lieut. Kennon was not located until about a year after the crash. Since identification was not possible, it was decided by the War Department, with the consent of the families to make a common memorial to the brave men who went down fighting in the crucial Pacific struggle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kennon and their daughter, Mary Ann, will leave Cameron on September 27 to attend the reburial services in Louisville.

NEGRO SLAIN AFTER FIRING ON FARMER

Austin Freeman, negro, is dead and John Longmire, farmer in Lee County, was charged in Justice Court at Giddings with the shooting which occured Saturday night at the Longmire Farm.

Willie Walden, Rockdale negro, was also involved in the shooting.

Carl C. Black, Sheriff for Milam county, was called to the scene of the shooting Saturday night and found the body of Freeman and beside the body a pistol.

Sheriff Black said that according to his information, trouble between the negro and Longmire may have started in Rockdale Saturday night. The negro had been drinking and there had been a trip to Lexington with cotton.

Mr. Longmire last saw the negro in Rockdale. Later in the evening the two negroes drove to the Longmire home and opened fire on Mr. Longmire. According to Sheriff Black the negroes both were firing pistols. Mr. Longmire is said to have opened fire with a shotgun, in self defense.

Freeman's body was located later near the Longmire home.

An examining trial was held in Giddings and Mr. Longmire was admited to bail in the sum of $1200.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. A. J. Johnson is seriously ill at Kings Daughters Hospital in Temple, where she has been for two weeks. Mrs. Johnson is the mother of Mrs. Roland Gandy.

Legislators Would Feather Their Nest With Tax Money

To the Editor:

On November the 8th, thousands of Texas voters will go to the polls to vote on ten proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Texas—a veritable prefabricated Constitution. Thousands of these voters will not have read these amendments, or will not know their substance, purpose and effect when they go into the booth to vote. The only way the voter can tell what an amendment means, if at all, is from the question placed and put on the ballot for each amendment. This question is presumed to show the voter what the amendment means. If the question does not do this it is unfair to the voter and will mislead him, and morally, at least, taints the election. These questions do not always meet this requirement, but sometimes conceal from the voter the substance, purpose and effect of the amendment.

Take for example the amendment 'relative to the sessions of the Legislature and to compensation of its Members." This question does not tell "the compensation of its Members," whether it is raised or decreased. It does not tell the voter that the amendment raises the salary of a Legislator from approximately $1,500.00 to $7,200.00 for a two year term. But it does. It does not tell the voter that each present Legislator will receive an increase in his salary for 1950 of $3,600.00 But it does.

The present Legislature voted for this amendment increasing its salary by $3,600.00 for 1950 in face of the Constitutional provision which says a Legislator who has an interest in a measure shall not vote thereon. They each had a $3,600.00 interest in the amendment. The Constitution says a legislator is ineligible to hold an office whose salary is increased during his term of office. In the face of all of this the Legislature submitted this amendment to the people. Vote against this Amendment ment. Vote No. If you don't understand the question to be answered on any Amendment vote against the Amendment. Vote No!

Two Local Boys Are Facing Delinquency Following Thefts

Two Cameron boys may face delinquency charges this week.

They were arrested around 4 p. m. Sunday afternoon in the A. W. McCullin service station on Highway 77 as they crouched behind a stack of auto tires.

They had just broken a cigarett and cold drink vending machine and took $15.00 in cash. In addition they took candy and other items from the station, most of it found hidden near the station and in the cavity of a tree in city park.

The boys broke into the station through a back window.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullin were on their way to Minerva and as they passed the station they saw the boys inside. Sheriff Black was summoned.

"Fritz," Dashund Parade Winner Is Auto Murder Victim

"Fritz," prize Daschund, who recently won the prize in the Pet Parade during the Lions Club Carnival, is dead, a murder victim.

The little dog, owned by Dorothy Kelley was found lifeless on the street last Tuesday night near the Kelly Nursery. A car had run him down. Now "Fritz" won't ever be able to parade again.

Dorothy and little "Fritz" took two prizes in the Lions Club parade, one in 1948 and one during early September.

GUARDSMEN HERE GET PAY ROLL $1,458.60

By LLOYD ALBERTSON

Checks totaling $1,458.60 were paid to officers and enlisted men of Battery C, 649th Anti-aircraft Artillery Battalion on Tuesday evening for their first armory pay day since returning from summer camp last month, Captain Rudolph Michalka reported.

"This is the largest armory payroll we have had so far," he said, "and reflects the growth of the battery."

He pointed out that the amount did not include pay received for two weeks of summer camp at Ft. Bliss, where the forty members of Battery C who attended were paid approximately $2,500 in cash.

Capt. Michalka also said the battery's payroll should be even larger for the next period because the National Guard is among the Armed Forces receiving a pay increase by the Kilday Bill which was passed by the Senate on Monday. According to news reports from Washington, the bill provides for only minor increases for the lowest enlisted grades, but grants Sergeants and Sergeants First Class a 33 and 34 percent increase respectively, and goes on up to 40 percent for Brigadier Generals, with corresponding boosts for the ranks in between. The bill went to President Truman on Tuesday and is expected to receive his signature promptly so the new pay scales can go into effect on October 1st.

Computed on an annual basis the Battalion's pay roll will run around $18,000.00 a year with present enlistment.

OFFICERS HEAR STORY OF PURSE SNATCHING

Officers here were looking for two negroes who robbed a negro farmer of $211.00 here Friday afternoon.

Sheriff Carl Black had been unable to get any trace of the robbers Saturday morning. The negroes are not known here.

Fred Phillips, 45, negro tenant on the Ed Graham farm at Sharp came to Cameron Friday to sell two bales of cotton. He had gone to a local bank and deposited the rent to the account of Mr. Graham and had left the bank with $212 in his pocket. According to the story told the sheriff, Phillips had been accosted by the robbers sometime earlier and they had questioned him about his operations.

In the course of the first meeting Phillips said he told the negroes whom he had never seen, that he had to go to the bank as he had sold two bales of cotton and must deposit some rent. The negroes learned that Phillips would leave the bank with money, it was surmised by officers. Later they intercepted Phillips at the western edge of the business district. As they talked one of the negroes reached into Phillips pocket and took his bill fold from which he extracted $211.00 and handed back one dollar, saying "This is all you need."

Phillips said he made no resistance and saw the men walk away. When it dawned on him what had happened, he tried to intercept the men by swiftly rounding a corner but never saw them again.

Mr. Graham and Phillips reported the robbery to the sheriff.

JOHN O. WOLF DIED HERE FRIDAY MORNING

(From the Daily)

John Oxenford Wolf, 68, of Lawton, Oklahoma, former resident here and a native of Cameron, died in St. Edwards Hospital at 9 a. m. Friday, September 23.

Mr. Wolf arrived in Cameron late Thursday and was at the home of his brother, Penn Wolf on East 11th Street when he complained of illness. A physician was summoned and he was taken to the hospital where he died Friday morning.

Mr. Wolf had lived in Lawton, Oklahoma for 40 years. He was a certified Public Accountant and Income Tax expert. He entered the business of accountancy when a young man and had remained in that profession until his death. In his early days in Cameron he was a book keeper for the firm of John M. and J. D. Hefley, late pioneers. He graduated from Cameron High School and then prepared himself for his life work.

Mr. Wolf was born in Cameron on August 30, 1881. He was a member of First Baptist Church in Lawton, Oklahoma.

Mr. Wolf was the son of the late Captain John B. Wolf and Agnes Adams Wolf, pioneers who settled in Milam county many years ago. Their first home was at Davilla. Later they moved to Cameron where John B. Wolf was an early day Sheriff and Tax Collector in Milam county.

His son, Penn Wolf, of Cameron, was District Clerk, and served longer than any other occupant of the office in the history of the county.

The old Wolf mansion still stands on West Main Street where Wyatt Wolf, brother of the deceased, resides.

The Wolf family is remotely a Kentucky generation. The ancestral home of the Wolfs in Arkansas where the late John B. Wolf and Mrs. Wolf lived, is located in Baxter County, and has been made a state shrine. It was built by Jacob Wolf 140 years ago and served as the first court house.

The deceased was a nephew of the late John Q. Wolf of Arkansas, banker and first president of the Arkansas Bankers Association which he organized years ago.

Funeral services were to be held from the Marek-Burns Funeral Home in Cameron at 10 a. m. Saturday, September 24 by Rev. Percy A. Corkern, Pastor, First Baptist Church, with interment in Oak Hill Cemetery in Cameron.

The body will be at the Marek-Burns Funeral Home and will remain there until interment hour on Saturday.

Surviving are two brothers, Penn Wolf, of Cameron, former District Clerk; and Wyatt L. Wolf, also of Cameron. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Chas. D. Wolf, widow of the late Chas. D. Wolf, survives and lives in Lawton, Oklahoma.

The deceased was never married. He had visited in Cameron at intervals over a period of years, coming home to see his family and to be with old friends. Only two members are left and they are Penn and Wyatt Wolf of this city.

MRS. DON SLOCOMB IS AWARDED DAMAGES

Mrs. Don Slocomb was awarded $7,500.00 in District Court here Wednesday morning in a suit she had instituted against L. C. Boyd, resulting from the death of her husband, Don Slocomb who suffered fatal injuries when the car driven by Boyd crashed into the slocomb car on Highway 77 north of the city in 1948.

The award resulted from a com-

MRS. DON SLOCOMB IS ASKING FOR $46,000

Trial before a jury in District Court in the $46,000.00 damage suit brought by Mrs. Don Slocomb against L. C. Boyd of Walkers Creek, got under way late Monday.

Mrs. Slocomb is asking damages resulting from the death of her husband, the late Don Slocomb, who was fatally injured on Highway 77 north of the city in 1948 when the car driven by Boyd crashed into the Slocomb machine.

Mr. Slocomb died in St. Edwards Hospital several days after the crash. At the time of the accident he was on his way to his farm bordering Elm Creek. Mr. Boyd was on his way home, both cars traveling north. Near the scene of the crash a road leads west from the main highway and onto the Slocomb lands, Boyd's car crashed into the Slocomb machine.

In the suit Mrs. Slocomb through her attorneys, charges that Boyd was driving at a high rate of speed, was negligent and did not have his car under proper control, that the resulting crash caused the death of Mr. Slocomb who suffered fatal injuries.

Attorneys Nelms and Hill of Houston are representing Mrs. Slocomb and Boyd is being represented by Judge Cofer of Austin and Skelly & Martin of Austin and Bill Wallace of Cameron.

Both sides asked for a jury. The major part of the day Monday was consumed in getting an additional number of men after the regular panel had been exhausted. A jury was selected at 3 p. m. and testimony was begun.

The first three witnesses were for Mrs. Slocomb. They were Claude Bailey who arrived at the scene of the accident shortly after it occured; Larry Hackebeil who testified to the damaged condition of the Boyd car, a new Chevrolet, driven only 600 miles, and Charles Brady, Photographer who made photos of the wreck, the highway and adjacent roads.

Legal representatives of the insurance company, underwriting the policy of the Boyd car, were also present. It was presumed that in case of loss the insurance company might be involved, although the suit is against Mr. Boyd.

YOEMEN OUTCLASSED PUT UP GOOD FIGHT

The score does not always tell the story. Cameron lost to Brenham 19 to 6 Friday night, were outclassed in one quarter of the ball game but otherwise made a good showing and put up one of the best defensive battles of the year despite a couple of explosive break throughs that cost them the game.

The Yoemen end play was poor on defense but brilliant on offense. The line was generally improved but the backfield, except for an occasional flash supplied by little Eddie Lankford was pose. The Yoemen played better ball. They did not fumble a single time. Defensive line play was good and except for exceptional end sweeping by the Cubs the Yoemen have nothing to regret in the game.

Cameron got good punting, a marked improvement over previous games, especially in the Caldwell game when it was fatally bad. The Yoemen made few errors. As predicted they were a much improved team and may give somebody trouble yet.

Cameron kicked off to Brenham and forwards were down fast and Gaskamp who was to deal us misery could make no appreciable runback. Neither team could go for about 7 minutes, then of a sudden, midway the first quarter good blocking funneled Gaskamp through tackle and he was away for 36 yards to the Cameron 19. Landua skirted the Cameron left end for the score. The point was missed.

From there on it was a purely defensive battle and there was no more scoring until the fourth quarter, although Cameron had its chance from the Cub 4 yard line in the late third It was an excellent offensive in the air with Frank Malone on the receiving end. Fuchs found the Cameron left end several times and the Yoemen had the ball on the Cub 5 yard line and then on the four with three downs to go. The ball went over on downs and the Cubs had to bail out.

In the fourth quarter Kettler hit Gaskamp with a pass and it was good for 45 yards and a touchdown. The Cubs missed the point again and it was 12 to 0. Cameron got going in the fourth. This time it was through the air with Fuchs pitching to Malone. The Cameron end put the ball on the Cub 12 with a 38 yard pass catch and run. Eldon Batte got a first down on the 5 yard line and two plays later carried it over. Cameron missed the point also and it was 12 to 6.

Cameron muffed a chance to score in the third quarter and did get over in the fourth. Then came the heart breaker. On the last play of the game while the Cubs were backed up in their end of the field due to standout line play by Cameron, Kettler took the ball and got 12 yards. As he was facing a hard tackle he tossed a lateral to Gaskamp and he went all the way for some 50 yards and a final score. They kicked the point and that was the ball game 19 to 6.

Melroy Eixman in the line for the first time this year, was a standout, as was Louis Hollas.

The Yoemen played the kind of game they were predicted to play, smoother, less mistakes and no fumbles and good punting. That last play of the game is the thing that puts gray hairs in a coach's head. They should never happen, but they do.

GINNING REPORT DUE IN EARLY OCTOBER

A total of 10,400 bales of new crop 1949 cotton had been received at the warves of the Cameron Compress Company up to Monday morning, it was reported by P. W. Davis, manager of the Compress.

This figure will compare well with the receipts for the same date in 1948 because the crop is late this year. The receipts up to Monday are bearing out the earlier estimates on the crop in the county. It was estimated here that the crop may be slightly more than half gathered.

A ginning report is expected in early October. In previous years the ginning reports were mailed to newspapers to be printed for general information. This has been changed. Reports on ginnings go to cotton factors, although assembled by a government agency, the Department of Commerce, they are no longer given direct to newspapers.

The picker shortage is still critical but on the whole harvest progress was moving along well.

Conservatively estimated the cotton already at the Compress for processing is valued at over a million dollars. To this must be added the picking take as cotton is the greatest of the crops in spreading prosperity. Seed values have been good and cotton in the early part of the season was bringing around $150.00 per bale aside from the seed .

The good crop is reflected in business. There has been debt paying and surpluses piled up in the bank and trade prospects this fall were never better.

H. C. VAUGHAN DIED HERE WEDNESDAY

H. C. (Boy) Vaughan, 38, died in the Newton Memorial Hospital at 1:20 p. m. Wednesday, September 21.

Mr. Vaughan had been in ill health for some time and entered the hospital for treatment early Wednesday morning. His death came suddenly and it was thought resulted from a heart condition.

Mr. Vaughan was a native of Milam county, member of a prominent pioneer family. He had been engaged in farming and at the time of his death was so occupied at his home place in the Belmena community.

Funeral services were to be held at 4:00 p. m. Thursday, September 22 at Walkers Creek Baptist Church by Rev. P. A. Corkern, pastor Baptist Church in Cameron. Interment in Walkers Creek Cemetery with the Green Funeral Home in Cameron directing arrangements.

Surviving are his widow Mrs. H. C. Vaughan of Cameron; mother, Mrs. Lena Vaughan of San Antonio; four sisters Mrs. May Hickman, Mrs. Verna Bryant of Cameron; Mrs. Ila Ballard of Dumas, Texas and Mrs. Eva Brashear of Houston; one brother, Silas Vaughan of Wichita Falls.

RETIREMENT PLAN IS STRESSED IN APPEAL

Recrutiing for National Guard Units throughout the country is being emphasized here for Cameron has a major stake in the success of the newly organized National Guard.

Since the unit was authorized here the local Artillery Battalion has made great progress. There has accrued to the community as a result, an Armory plant to cost almost a half million dollars, the first unit of which is now under construction. In appreciation of this development here the people purchased a 20 acre site and deeded the tract to the state.

Now comes a special recruiting campaign with emphasis on the retirement plan. The recruiting weeks extend from September 19 through November 19. Mayor Roy Griffith has issued a special Proclamation and Guard headquarters has prepared an understandable outline of benefits.

Men who served in the late war have a special stake in this retirement plan. The table gives the amounts already earned. If you were in service one year you have earned $5.50 retirement pay. If you served five years you have already earned $27.50 per month and 6 years $33.50 per month with amounts varying in between. By joining the National Guard you can earn up to $50.00 per month retirement pay as indicated by the length of years one must serve.

To earn $40 a month through insurance and retire at 60 would cost a veteran $7,750.00 if he had to them in a lump sum, or he could pay a monthly premium of $15.75 per month for 35 years. As it is the retirement benefit from National Guard reserve service costs a member nothing in money.

To get this retirement here is all you have to do: Join the National Guard, devote 2 hours a week to reserve training and two weeks each year at some form of active duty training. You get from $10.00 to $25.00 month pay for the two hours a week and from $37.50 to $110.00 for the two weeks training.

Attention Farmers!

Do you know why the price of cotton seed is $49.50 per ton instead of $30 per ton? Farmers in Farm Bureau were responsible for securing this better price for your product. This price is not adequate and fair for farmers, but it would have been much less if it had not been for the Farm Bureau's efforts in securing the 90% of parity support price this year on your cotton seed—JOIN YOUR FARM BUREAU and help solve your problems. Your Farm Bureau organization has been proud to serve you during 1949. Farmers working together in the organization have saved the Texas Farmers at least ninety million dollars this year through solving the grain storage problem and by securing the 90% of parity cotton seed support price program. Continue to protect, promote, and secure agriculture by becoming a member of your county Farm Bureau.

U S SENATE VOTE IS BILLION FOR ARMS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22 — The senate tonight approved a $1,314,010,000 program of arms aid for nations in the shadow of Russia's great military machine.

The vote on the passage was 55 to 24.

Final passage came after administration forces defeated two moves to cut down the size of the air program. The most potent of these, an amendment by Senator George (D-Ga.) to trim $200,000,000 off the funds for Atlantic pact nations, lost 46-32.

This action set the United States firmly on a policy of re-arming friendly nations in the world-wide effort to bar the doors against communist aggression.

In its final form the senate bill authorizes arms aid totaling:

$1,000,000,000 for the North Atlantic pact nations in Europe.

$211,370,000 for Greece and Turkey.

$27,640,000 for Iran, Korea and the Philippines.

$75,000,000 to be used in the China area at the discretion of the President.

The cash must yet be provided by appropriation.

The bill also permits ending $450,000,000 in surplus arms.

The final amount which congress will authorize for military assistance overseas remains to be decided by a conference of senate and house members.

The house approved an arms bill, totalling $869,505,000—or $444,505,000 less than the senate bill. Their differences will be worked out in conference.

In a warm debate before the voting, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) protested that arming Western Europe "is likely to incite Russia to war."

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Grounds and daughter Catherine Ann of Ashdown, Ark., spent the week end in the H. N. Tate home and were joined by another daughter Miss Lois a student nurse at Scott and White Hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Davidson and two children of Dallas have moved to Cameron where Rev. Davidson will be pastor of First Assembly of God Church.

Herald Football Trophy Is Placed In Circulation

District 21-A Football Trophy given by The Cameron Herald, will be placed in competition this year for the first time.

This trophy will be on display in a show window at the Texas Power & Light Company sometime during this week .

The trophy was accepted by the District Committee several years ago. At that time metals were scarce and the trophy market was barren. Last November The Herald received the trophy it had tried to buy three years previous. It was too late to put the award in circulation and the trophy had to await the opening of the season this year.

The trophy is a very fine one, a duplicate of the big trophy given in the city of Houston in 1948. This trophy, if won three times in a row, will remain the property of the school winning thus. Otherwise it will be engraved and competed for each season. The team winning will have possession for one year.

MILAM FARM BUREAU TO ENROLL MEMBERS

Plans are developing for Milam County Farm Bureau's participation in State wide Membership Enrollment Week, October 20-27, S. W. McClaren, president, said today. Approximately 100 workers will volunteer their services during enrollment Week to contact friends and neighbors inviting them to join Farm Bureau.

Membership Week will be officially launched by the State Farm Bureau president J. Walter Hammond on October 20 at 8:30 p. m. when he addresses Texas farmers over the Lone Star Chain Network. Other agricultural leaders of prominence will also be heard on the program.

On October 21, the Farm Bureau leadership expects to have 10,000 workers through out the state soliciting Farm Bureau memberships. Mr. McClaren said. The state goal is 70,000. Milam county's goal is 1,000.

"Other groups have prospered through organization", Mr. McClaren said. "The past few years farmers have seen what organization can do for them, even when membership has been low. Texas farmers are learning from experience that it is good business to be organized. Who knows what 1950 will hold for the farmers," he declared, "but they know Farm Bureau will be on guard to protect their interest."

WORLD SHOCKED OVER BOMB STATEMENT

An atomic explosion somewhere in the secret vastness of Soviet Russia sent shock waves of fear around the world today and blasted hopes that Americas' monopoly on A-bombs might last for several years.

The historic news, comparable only in significance to the announcement of the Hiroshima blast of Aug. 6, 1945, was given to the world today by President Truman in these words:

"We have evidence that within weks an atomic explosion occured in the U. S. S. R."

His brief but epochal statement did not say in so many words that Russia has produced an atomic bomb.

But scientists and statesmen agreed that it marked the abrupt agreed of a short-lived era in which this country alone had the power to decide whether the most dreadful weapon in history would be used in warfare.

Mr. Truman clearly shared this view. In his report to the American people, delivered after a Caminet meeting, he recalled repeated warnings in the past that the American "monopoly of atomic weapons" could not last.

"This recent development," he said, "emphasizes once again the necessity for truly effective and enforceable international control of atomic energy."

Authoritative diplomatic quarters said there was no reason to expect that the Russian achievement has made the prospect of war greater or more immediate.

They waited anxiously to see whether Russian officials will react by becoming "even more arogant" in their cold war conduct, or by showing a sobered "sense of responsibility" now that they share with the United States a secret that could destroy civilization.

Congressional leaders generally respond with an appeal to the public to avoid hysteria. They pointed out that this very news has long been expected—although U. S. experts thought, or hoped, it would not come before 1951 or 1952.

Mr. Truman's announcement — quickly followed by similar statements from British Prime Minister Clement Atlee in London and Canadian Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent in Ottawa—left many questions unanswered.

CORN HARVESTER
KEEPS GOING IN SOFT FIELDS

When fall rains make the ground soft or sticky, there are two main reasons why the A-C Corn Harvester keeps going:

1. It's Undermounted with three-fourths of the weight carried on the tractor drive wheels suspended from the rear tractor axle.

2. It's a lighter, simpler machine. A-C engineers have eliminated unnecessary drive chains, sprockets, gears and gadgets. You don't need a two-ton machine to pick an ear of corn weighing less than a pound.

REDS SAY THEY WANT CONTROL OF ATOMICS

Russia declared today she had an atomic weapon as long ago as 1947 and renewed demands for prohibition and control of the atom bomb.

This was the first official reaction to President Truman's announcement that indications had been discovered of a recent atomic explosion in Russia.

An authorized statement by Tass, official Soviet news agency, did not confirm or deny such an explosion. However, it recalled the statement of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on Nov. 6, 1947, that the secret of the atom bomb "has long since ceased to exist," and declared:

"This declaration meant that the Soviet Union had already discovered the secret of the atom weapon and it has at its disposal this weapon."

But it was the last two paragraphs of the Tass statement which attracted the attention of the observers here and sent western embassy staffs into huddles and poring over their files on the atomic question. These paragraphs were:

"It should be pointed out that the Soviet government, despite the existence in its country of an atomic weapon, adopts and intends adopting in the future its former position in favor of the absolute prohibition of the use of the atomic weapon.

"Concerning control of the atomic weapon it has to be said that control will be essential in order to check up on fulfillment of a decision on the prohibition of production of the atomic weapon.

On the basis of Russian statements, Soviet scientists developed an atomic weapon sometime between Oct. 28, 1946, and Nov. 6, 1947.

On the 1946 date Prime Minister Josef Stalin was asked by an American newspaperman (Hugh Baillie of the United Press) if the Soviet Union had its own atomic bomb or any weapon like it.

His answer was: "No."

On the 1947 date Molotov spoke in Moscow on the eve of the 30th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution. He said a "new and peculiar religion" had spread in the United States—"faith in the secret of the atom bomb, although this secret has long since ceased to exist."

Tass today said scientists in the U. S. accepted this statement of Molotov's as "bluff" because they thought Russia was incapable of developing a bomb before 1952.

"They, however were mistaken, since the Soviet Union possessed the secret of the atomic weapon already in 1947," the news agency added.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN GETS STRIKE TRUCE

Hope spread through the steel industry and ranks of labor that settlement of the dispute between industry and workers might be achieved.

President Truman had obtained a 6 day truce to continue the negotiations period. All that was lacking was agreement from Labor and that was believed forthcoming.

The deadline for the first truce is midnight Saturday when a million steel workers were due to quit. United States Steel, mogul of the hard metals industry, quickly accepted the President's plea for a 6 day extension.

Other steel companies had fallen into line Friday and Phillip Murray of the CIO steel workers was believed ready to say "yes" but had not done so at noon Friday.

Meanwhile the Ford plant was getting around to resumption with settlement due in the wage dispute. Henry Ford, Jr., had indicated earlier he agreed to accept the pension plan laid down by government.

There was less optimism in the coal strike situation. Despite its inevitable effect on the nation's industries, some were discouraged over lack of effort to agree. One source said that coal operators were waiting to see what steel does.

Chances were much better that peace would be restored to the nation's major industries.

C. E. Crawford of Corpus Christi attended the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harriett Lane Heath Saturday.

Mrs. James Haile of Rockdale is ill and a patient in Newton Memorial Hospital.

IN MEMORY OF

H. C. (Boy) VAUGHAN

Thirty-eight years ago God sent a baby son to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milt Vaughan. On Wednesday, September 21, 1949 God saw fit to recall this one to live with him.

Boy, as he was affectionately called by relatives and friends spent his boyhood in the Belmena Community, attending school at Belmena and later engaged in farming.

On November 8, 1933 he was married to Miss Vada Bryant. They established their home in the same house in which he was born and lived until his death.

Early in life he gave his heart to Christ and became a member of the Walker's Creek Baptist Church. He lived true to this faith until his death. At the time of his death he was treasurer of the church.

His conscientious way of living, according to his honest convictions and being able to present himself in the same unselfish manner from day to day, caused him to become a favorite with friends as well as with relatives.

His home life was that of love and devotion, ever thoughtful of the welfare of his loved ones. He leaves an unceasing carvan of beautiful memories to fill their hearts.

As a neighbor he was unsurpassed. Possessive of an untiring attitude of help and always grateful to those who showed kindness toward him.

Life is not measured so much by the number of years lived, but by the way in which those years are lived. Although handicapped for some time by a persistent heart ailment, Boy's short span of years were filled to capacity.

Our loss is heaven's gain.

Contributed by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson have reutrned to their home in Monahans after spending several days in the homes of his mother, Mrs. F. E. Jackson, Sr. and his brother, F. E. Jackson, Jr. Harold was reared here and has a host of friends who are always glad to welcome him home.

DR. J N. R. SCORE OF SOUTHWESTERN IS DEAD

GEORGETOWN, Sept. 26—Dr. J. N. R. Score, 53, president of Southwestern University died at his home in Georgetown shortly before 1 p. m. Monday, the school announced.

Dr. Score went to the Georgetown University in 1942 from the First Methodist Church of Fort Worth.

Friends said he had been ill since May with a heart ailment and recently was confined to his bed.

Dr. Score served as pastor of First Methodist Church for eight years before assuming the presidency of Southwestern University. When he assumed the pastorate the church had erected a $1,110,000 building and was struggling with an indebtedness of more than $400,000. At his departure the debt had been reduced to $247,000.

Previously he had served as pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church. Houston, and University Church, Berkley, Calif.

A native of Missouri, Dr. Score received his AB degree from Scarritt-Morrisville College and a BD degree from Emory University. He served as an Army chaplain during World War I, seeing active service in France.

In 1925 he received his Doctor of Theology Degree from the Pacific School of Religion and in 1932 was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Centenary College.

He served as president of the board of trustees of Harris Hospital, trustee, Methodist Home, Waco; president board of education of the Central Texas Conference, 1938-42; member of the United Conference of Methodist Church, 1939; member, General Conference, 1940-44, and Ritual Commission, 1940-43.

Survivors are widow and son, J. N. R. Score III who today was entering Harvard University.

Gun Toters Are Not Required to Forfeit Arms To The State

AUSTIN, Sept. 26 — Gun-totin' Texans caught by the law don't have to give up ownership of their shooting irons to the state.

That was the ruling today of the Attorney General, who said county courts have no legal authority to confiscate weapons owned by persons convicted of unlawfully carrying arms.

Texas' pistol-packin' law deals with more than pistols. It says:

"Whoever shall carry on or about his person, saddle or in his saddle bags any pistol, dirk, dagger, slungshot, sword cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or any hard substance, bowie knife, or any other knife manufactured or sold for the purposes of offensive or defensive, shall be punished by a fine not less than $100 nor more than $500, or by confinement in jail for not less than one month nor more than one year."

Assistant Attorney General Burnell Waldrep went back to a case decided in 1878 to rule on the question put by James C. Martin, Nueces county attorney, at Corpus Christi.

This decision held unconstitutional a part of what the law then was, providing for forfeiture to the county of the weapon in case of conviction.

He said article 51 of the penal code now specifies that "there shall in no criminal case be a forfeiture of any kind to the state."

Statement of Ownership, Management, and Circulation required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, as amended by the acts of March 3, 1933, and Jnly 2, 1946.

GRIM DAYS LIE AHEAD FOR THE YOEMEN

The Yoemen open their 1949 Conference Flag race here Friday night against Georgetown.

Grim days lie ahead for the Defending Champions in District 21-A. Staffed almost 90 per cent by inexperienced Sophomores, the team under Coach Paul Smith, has shown it can play good football. That it has lost two games out of three, means little. Most everyone informed knew in advance of the season that the Yoemen would have a hard time in 1949.

One thing stands out preminent above every other consideration. The fans are loyal. They are backing the young team 100 per cent and they are showing they can take defeat and that is what counts for good sportsmanship in the long run.

The line of victory or defeat in the Brenham game was very fine. It might have been 6 to 6 tie or it might have been 12 to 6 in favor of the Yoemen. But it didn't happen that way and so that is history.

This week the Yoemen are plugging ahead for their conference game with Georgetown.

Last Friday night Georgetown scored 13 points on Killeen and could have won the game. They are a much stronger bunch of Eagles than they were in 1948 and Cameron is weaker. On the face of it Georgetown will be favored to win. But the Yoemen are not letting that discourage them.

The Yoemen play three games in Cameron beginning Friday night. The remainder of the schedule will be on the road. It is Georgetown here Friday night September 30; Waco Tech on October 7 and Taylor here on October 14.

GULF STORM SUBSIDES NO BLOW EXPECTED

(From the Daily)

HOUSTON, Sept. 22—The season's first tropical storm threatening Texas from the Gulf lost a lot of its punch today, but coastal Texans still kept a wary lookout.

The U. S. Weather Buerau lowered hurricane warnings at 10 a. m., and the rush to batten down against a possible big blow slacked off.

Planes scouted the northwest Gulf of Mexico, but they couldn't find a center of circulation for the storm. At 4 p. m. (CST) the disturbed area was centered about 220 miles east of Corpus Christi.

It was moving northward about five miles an hour, attended by scattered squalls up to 50 miles an hour.

The weather bureau said it still wasn't safe to let down completely because the storm might regain its strength.

Winds up to 60 miles an hour—15 below hurricane velocity—were clocked last night at the height of the blow, but when the hurricane warnings were lowered the storm's top winds were down to 35 miles an hour.

Small craft on the Texas and Louisiana coast were warned to stay in port.

Storm warnings were ordered down from Port O'Connor south of Brownsville at Texas' southern tip, but the weather bureau left them flying from Port O'Connor north to Lake Charles, La. Port O'Connor is about 115 miles southwest of Houston.

The disturbed area was about 165 miles southeast of Galveston and moving northward at five to eight miles an hour when the hurricane warnings were hauled down at 10 a. m.

The weather bureau advisory lifting hurricane warnings came at 10 a. m. Thursday. The bureau said the storm at that time was about 160 miles southeast of Galveston. Its winds ranged only up to 35 miles an hour. It was moving northward at from five to eight miles an hour.

Reconnaissance planes had reported winds up to 60 miles an hour Wednesday night at the height of the alert.

TRUMAN TELLS CABINET RUSSIA SETS EXPLOSION

Russia has exploded an Atomic bomb.

President Truman told his cabinet in Washington Friday morning that he has information that Russia recently exploded an Atomic bomb.

The President did not elaborate on this straight forward statement, but other authorities did comment. According to the best available information, the bomb was exploded experimentally sometime during the past few weeks.

Senator Vandenburg of Michigan, former chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, said that if true, the war is much nearer than we had imagined.

A National Science magazine publisher said that Russia has not only developed the atomic bomb but has exploded one experimentally.

Russia is known to have exploited large deposits of uranium recently.

How the secret was obtained, was not explained, but one source said that the United States and Great Britain have powerful detonation detectors to record explosions at unbelievable distances.

The announcement of the President touched off comment all over the nation, especially from political leaders, scientists and military men.

Partial confirmation of the President's statement came from London where it was said British Intelligence had also obtained reports on the Russian Atomic bomb explosion.

Clyde Cummings of Temple spent the week end in Cameron visiting relatives. Clyde is employed in Temple and is attending Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dakel were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lange of Buckholts.

A Big Boost For Smitty!

Stepped into Smith's Department Store the other noon and saw the strangest thing. "Sis" Davis was coming up the stairs from the basement with a bundle of wash.

"Is Smitty taking in washing these days?" I asked. "Not quite," she says. "He's just put in a new automatic washing machine, so the girls who work here can get their laundry done while they're eating lunch. Means more time to relax at night and on weekends."

I thought what a swell boss Smitty must be. Human relations between the boss and employees have certainly taken a big step forward during my lifetime.

From where I sit, people seem to be doing a better job of seeing our neighbor's viewpoint these days. Though his ideas and tastes may not be ours, we can understand his preference for a certain breakfast cereal, a favorite movie star, or for a temperate glass of beer or ale. That's the way it should be in a free country.

STILL UNDER

TWO DOLLARS

Subscription rates among all publications have gone up. Some have been doubled and more. It now costs you around $18 average a year to get a representative Texas daily newspaper.

In the weekly field, long before present news print prices, many publications charged two dollars. Certainly that was not too high but every publication has a different problem, a different policy.

The Herald has through the years maintained a consistently low subscription rate. It is still under two dollars in Milam county. We do not know when we can reduce. With good newsprint around $200 a ton laid down, we simply cannot sell The Herald for less than $1.75.

It is not the subscription price that makes the paper. It is what is printed on the paper you get, how it is printed and the newspaper way of presenting it, that makes papers stand out.

These are some of the reasons why The Herald has carried on its lists subscribers with a half a century and more of reader interest. Year in and year out they renew, hundreds and hundreds of them.

When good newspapers can be sold for less The Herlad will sell them.
